

Singapore

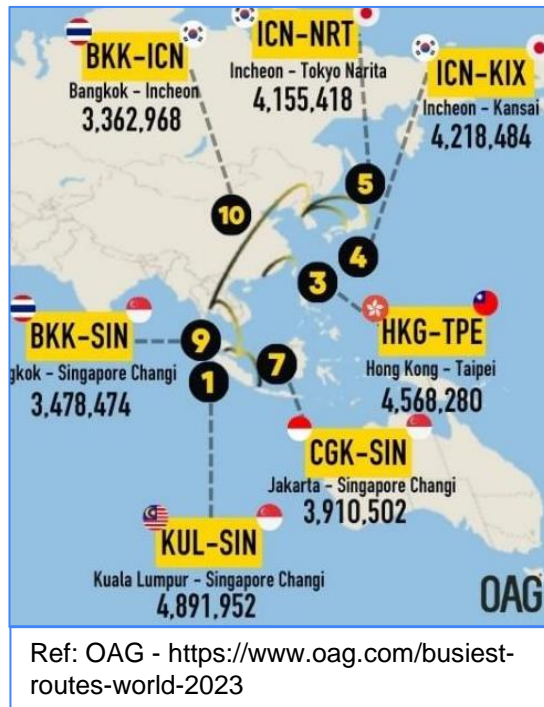

GLOBAL AEROSPACE
CLUSTER
PARTNERSHIP
by EACP

Global Market Information Day
24 Sep 2024

The city geared up for Formula One night race

Air connectivity is our economic lifeblood

Singapore on 3 of the top 10 busiest international air routes.

Singapore has 5 airports and manages a Flight Information Region that extends to S.China Sea.

A 1,080 ha expansion and new Terminal 5, adding 50 mil pax to capacity. Completion in mid 2030s.

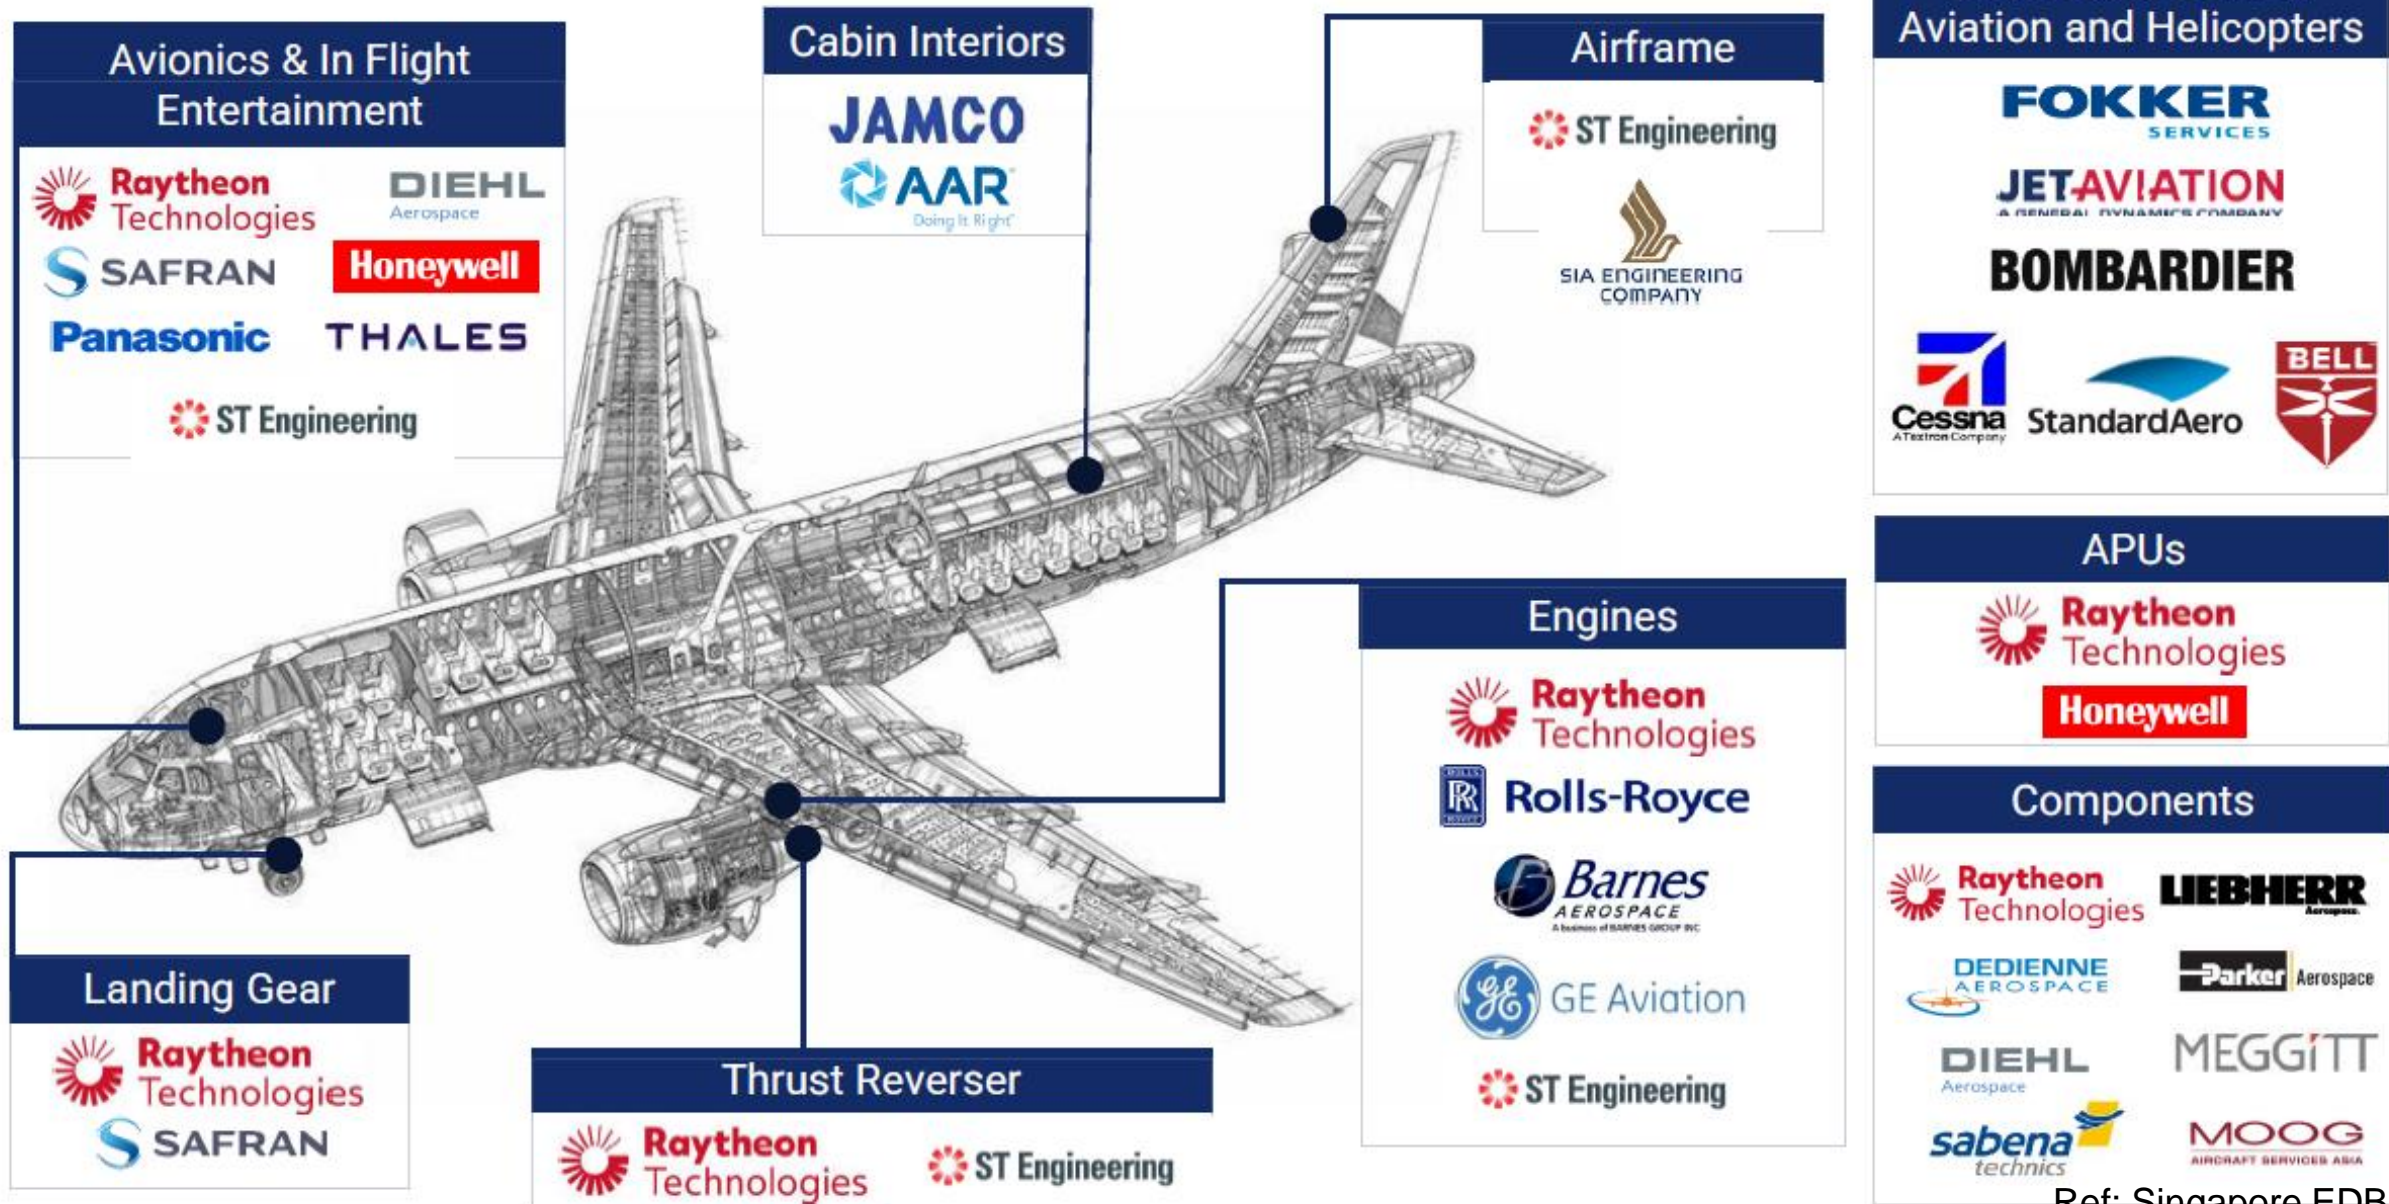

Economic contribution

- The Aviation hub contributes about 5% to GDP, employing 200,000.
- Aerospace manufacturing and MRO accounted for S$15 billion (US$11.4 billion) in output and employed 22,000 in 2023.

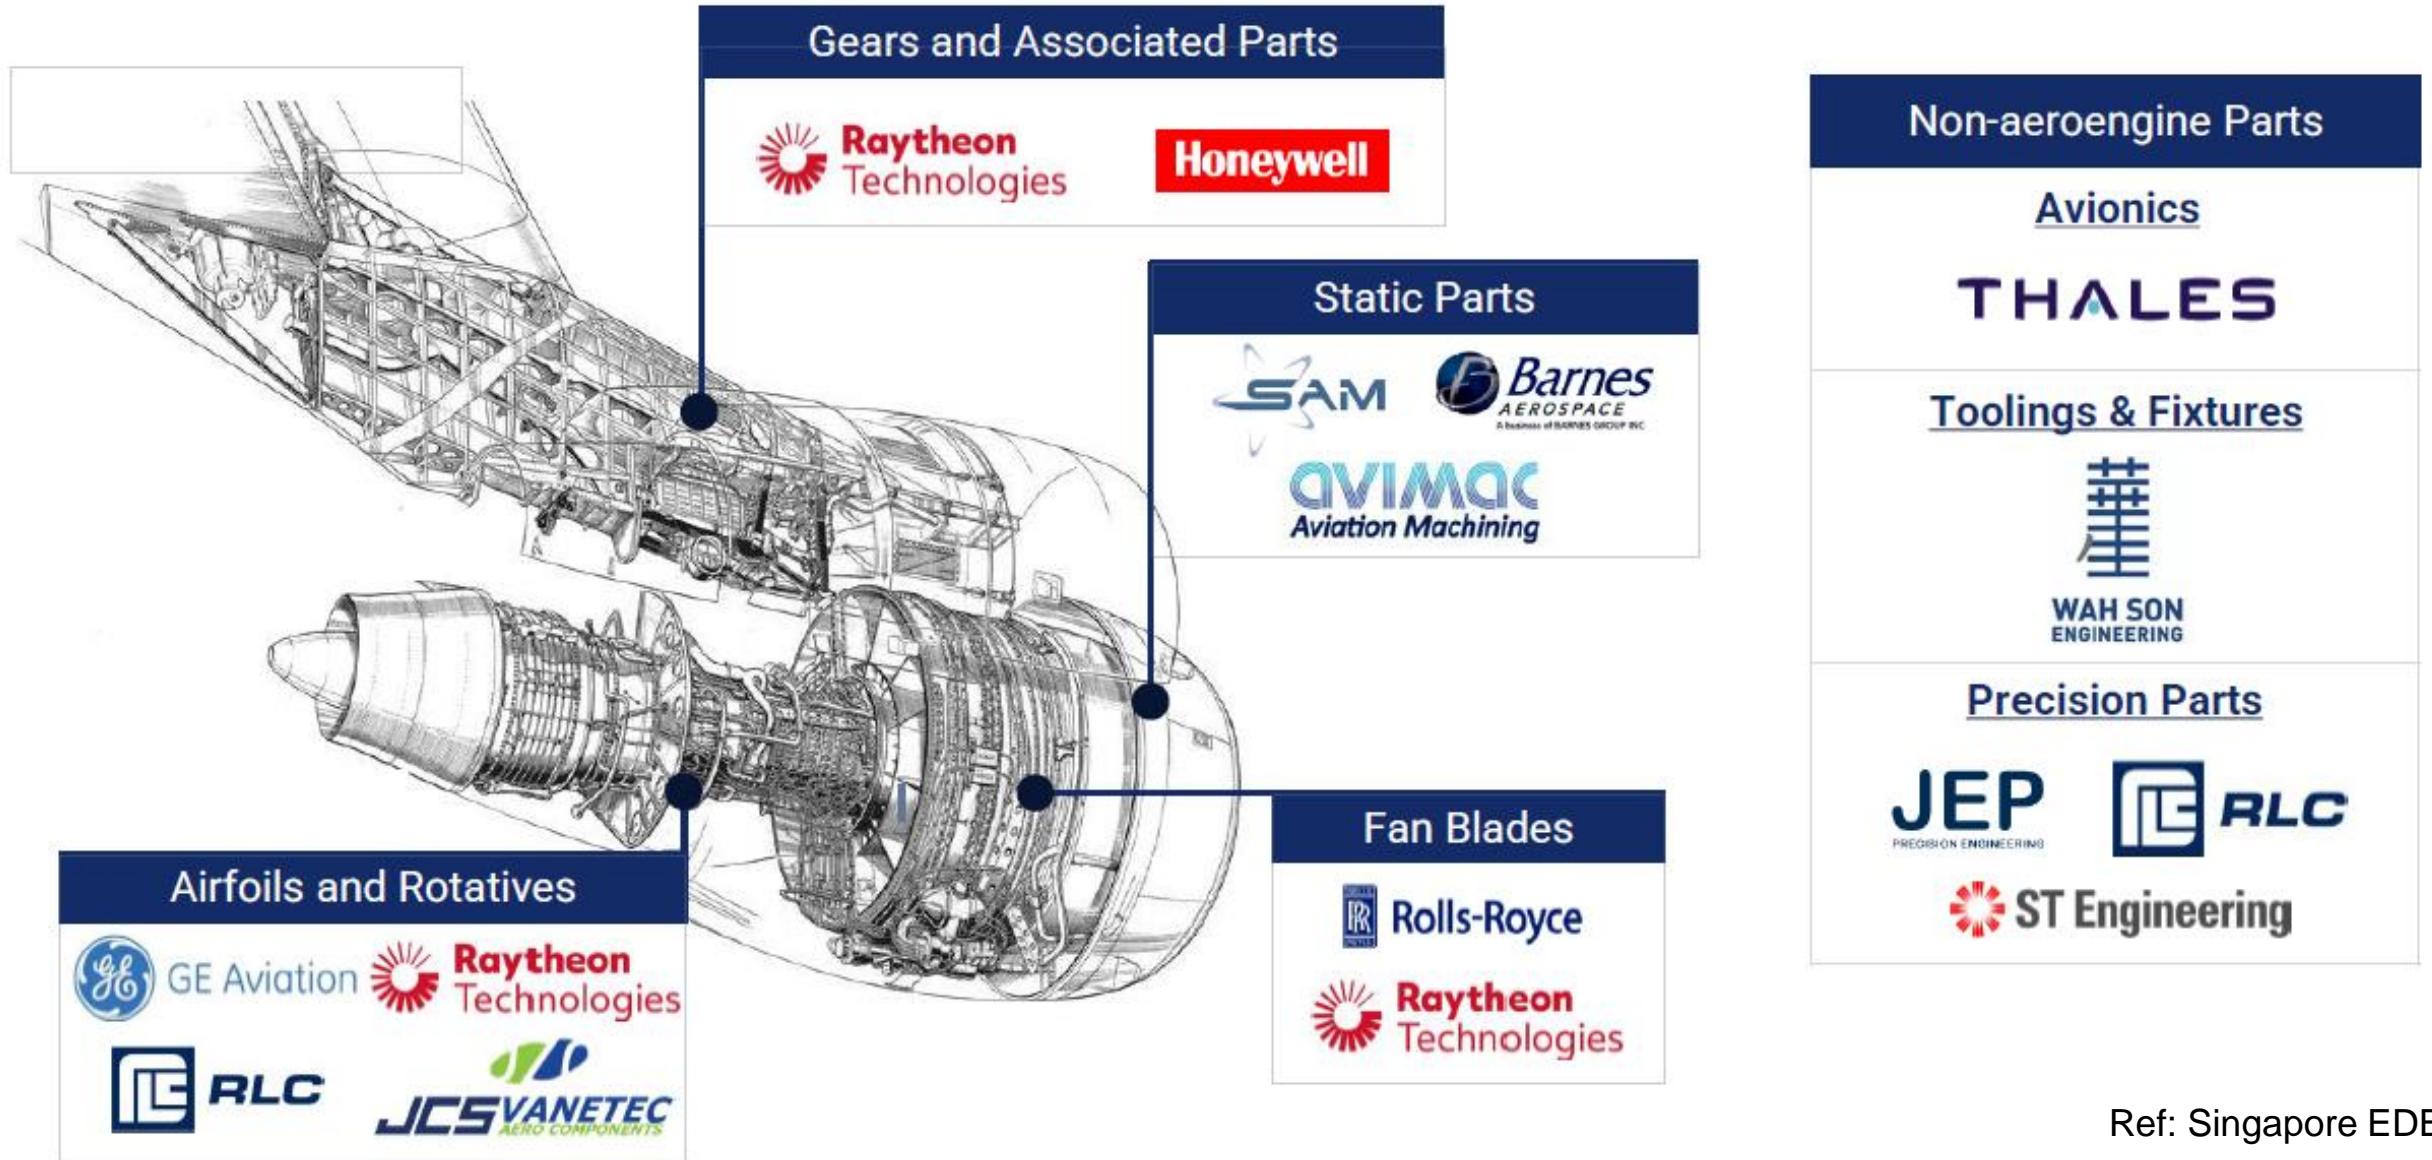

Recent announcements:

- ST Engineering 4-bay hangar S$170 million
- Safran Electrical & Power manufacturing, MRO for aeronautical electrical equipment
- Barnes Aerospace new component repair facility 50% increase in Singapore footprint
- Singapore Aero Engine Services (RR JV) invests US$180 million to grow capacity by 40%
- Collins Aerospace US250 million new plant at Seletar to replace Bedok facility
- Eagle Services Asia (P&W JV) 48,000 sqft expansion of GTF overhaul capacity
- GE Aerospace “smart factory” for aircraft engine repair
- Thales to recruit more than 1000 people over 3 years for avionics and digital sectors

Nose to Tail Capabilities for MRO

Manufacturing High Value Components

Defence – aircraft operated by RSAF

AH64 Apache

S70B Seahawk

C130

F35

H225

G5000 AEW

Fokker F50

F15

CH47 Chinook

A330 MRTT

KC135

F16

SINGAPORE'S SPACE JOURNEY

>15 Satellites built and launched since 2011
 >15 Satellite projects in the pipeline

Space

- More than 15 SATELLITES built and launched since 2011
- FIRST COMMERCIAL satellite launched in 2015
- OVER 50 local and international companies
- OVER 2,000 professionals across engineering, research and business roles within the sector

Ref: Office of Space Technology and Industry
<https://www.space.gov.sg/singapore-space-ecosystems/highlights/>

3 ways to plug in!

01

International AAIS Network

IAN – connect

www.aaais.org.sg

02

Asia Pacific Aviation Directory

APAD - advertise

www.aviationdirectory.biz

03

Aerospace Singapore Digital

ASD – be informed

www.aerospace.sg